

About us

International Interim Management

Provenance

International Interim Management was spun out of Korn/Ferry International in late 2004 and it is now a stand alone independent business providing interim executive services worldwide.

Management

International Interim Management is managed by executives with long standing experience of the world of interim management. They all have considerable experience and are all well known names in their chosen field.